

The Gloria Barron Prize for Young Heroes celebrates inspiring, public-spirited young people from across the U.S. and Canada. Established in 2001 by author T. A. Barron, the Barron Prize annually honors 25 outstanding young leaders ages 8 to 18 who have made a significant positive impact on people, their communities, and the environment. Fifteen top winners each receive $10,000 to support their service work or higher education.

Since its inception, the Barron Prize has awarded more than half a million dollars to hundreds of young heroes who represent the great diversity of America. The Prize has won the support of Girl Scouts of the USA, Jane Goodall's Roots & Shoots, The Wilderness Society, and National Youth Leadership Council, among other organizations.

“Nothing is more inspiring than stories about heroic people who have truly made a difference to the world,” says Barron. “And we need our heroes today more than ever. Not celebrities, but heroes – people whose character can inspire us all. That is the purpose of the Gloria Barron Prize: to shine the spotlight on these amazing young people so that their stories will inspire others.”

SELECTION CRITERIA

Our judges use the following criteria in choosing winners:

1. Winners must have organized and led an extraordinary service activity which has clearly benefited other people or the planet we share. The service activity must have been initiated and motivated primarily by the winner himself or herself. The service activity cannot have been done solely to complete an assignment for school or work.

2. Winners must have:
 - demonstrated heroic character qualities such as courage, compassion, dedication, generosity, perseverance, and high moral purpose.
 - shown initiative, tenacity, and unselfishness in pursuit of their goals.
 - accomplished something with inspirational value—something that could inspire others to make a difference.
 - done more than survive a difficult personal challenge. Their heroism must have made an impact on the world beyond themselves.
3. Winners may or may not have received recognition for their heroic work. Fame itself shall not have been a motivating factor.

Please read these requirements carefully before you begin the application process.

1. Applications (including three required Letters of Recommendation) must be completed and submitted online by our deadline of 5:00 p.m. MT on April 15 each year, when the system will automatically close.

3. Please contact us well in advance of our deadline for any technical assistance you anticipate needing. We do not accept applications after 5 p.m. MT on April 15.

5. Members of the applicant's family cannot act as the Lead Reference nor write the other two Letters of Recommendation.
