

APPLICATION FOR THE
GLORIA BARRON PRIZE FOR YOUNG HEROES

Celebrating today's young heroes

The Gloria Barron Prize for Young Heroes celebrates inspiring, public-spirited young people from diverse backgrounds all across North America. Established in 2001 by author T.A. Barron, the Barron Prize annually honors 25 outstanding young leaders ages 8 to 18 who have made a significant positive impact on people, their communities, and the environment.

Since its inception, the Barron Prize has awarded more than half a million dollars to hundreds of young leaders and has won the support of the National Geographic Education Foundation, Girl Scouts of the USA, and National Youth Leadership Council, among other organizations.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Our judges use the following criteria in choosing winners:

1. Winners must have organized and led an extraordinary service activity which has clearly benefited other people or the planet we share.
 - a. The service activity must have been initiated and motivated primarily by the winner himself or herself.
 - b. The service activity cannot have been done solely to complete an assignment for school or work.
2. Winners must have:
 - a. demonstrated positive spirit, courage, intelligence, generosity, and high moral purpose.
 - b. shown initiative, tenacity, and unselfishness in pursuit of their goals.
 - c. accomplished something with inspirational value—something that could inspire others to make a difference.
 - d. done more than survive a difficult personal challenge. Their heroism must have made an impact on the world beyond themselves.
3. Winners may or may not have received recognition for their heroic work. Fame itself shall not have been a motivating factor.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Please read these requirements carefully before you begin the application process.

1. Applications must be completed and submitted online by our deadline of 5:00 p.m. MT on April 15 each year, when the system will automatically close.
2. We do not accept applications via fax, email, U.S. mail, or any other carrier.
3. Please contact us well in advance of our deadline for any technical assistance you anticipate needing. We do not accept applications after April 15.
4. Applications must include a letter from the Lead Reference. A Lead Reference is simply an adult advocate who has solid knowledge of the applicant's heroic activities. Examples of Lead References include teachers, librarians, school counselors, youth service officials, and religious leaders.
5. Members of the applicant's family cannot act as Lead References nor write the other two letters of recommendation.
6. All required application materials must be included at the time of submission. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
7. Contents of the application are considered public information once submitted and should not include private or privileged information.

By submitting an entry in the Gloria Barron Prize for Young Heroes, each applicant acknowledges reading and understanding all the selection criteria and application requirements published on the prize's website and agrees to observe them. Further, each entrant acknowledges and agrees that as a condition of receiving the prize, the selected individual will cooperate in publicizing the Barron Prize and will grant rights in the applicant's materials to the Barron Prize.
